

Chagrin Valley Conference Sportsmanship Standards

The vision and purpose of the Chagrin Valley Conference is to promote wholesome interscholastic competition and sportsmanship among its member schools, students, fans and athletes.

In carrying out this purpose, Chagrin Valley Conference would like to share with you the core values that were developed by the students of the Chagrin Valley Conference.

Respect

Respect is a way of treating or thinking about someone. Please show respect by being polite and appropriately enthusiastic.

Leadership

Leadership is the action of leading people. Be prepared to be a leader! Demonstrate leadership by setting an appropriate example.

Take Responsibility

As a member of the Chagrin Valley Conference, you must take responsibility for your actions.

Role model

Be a role model! A role model is someone others look to as a good example. Being a role model inspires others to imitate his or her good behavior.

Encourage Others

When you help someone by offering positive words of support and approval you encourage them to develop their abilities.

Ethnic, gender and racial discrimination is expressed through “harassment or bullying” that creates an intimidating, hostile or threatening environment. The Chagrin Valley Conference will not tolerate this type of behavior from any players, coaches or fans.
